

World Trade Organisation Law Moot Court

The World Trade Organisation (WTO) Law Moot Court Competition is a highly realistic simulation of an international legal dispute settlement proceeding on international trade. It provides a spectacular head-start for the aspiring international lawyer and makes for a noteworthy CV addition.

The WTO Moot Court is conducted by the European Law Students Association in co-operation with the WTO. This competition presents participants with a unique and rare opportunity to experience the cutting-edge field of international economic law in practice. Further information on the competitions can be found at www.elsamootcourt.org or via email to christian.tietje@jura.uni-halle.de.

Applicants selected, via an audition process, to represent the MLU in these competitions stand to receive the following benefits:

- i) Possibility of Winning a Scholarship for the Prestigious World Trade Institute Summer School on WTO Law in Bern, Switzerland
- ii) Tailor-Made Individual Instruction on WTO Law, Legal Drafting, as well as Advocacy and Litigation Technique
- iii) Special Training Workshop with International Law Firm Linklaters in Munich,
- iv) Participation at the European Regional Round; and upon qualification, Participation at the Moot Court Competition Finals
- v) Ample Opportunity for obtaining an Internship at International Law Firm Linklaters
- vi) Sprachschein, Seminarschein and 10 Credit Points for "Master of Business Law and Economic Law" at MLU

Requirements for Participation:

Applicants must be Law Students; An intermediate competency in English is strongly recommended.

Einführungsveranstaltung:

Dienstag, 14. Juli 2009
18.00 c.t. - 19.00

Dozentenbibliothek Öffentliches Recht, Juridicum